People's Organisation for People Education (POPE)

Human Resource Policy

Preamble:

India is demographically a young country with a child population of more than 472 million. Though it is the supreme duty of the State and its agencies to protect its 40% child population, it equally concerns every citizen. In his or her individual and collective capacity the citizen ought to protect children and ensure that they live in freedom, dignity and safety. The Constitution of India recognises children as right holders and accords priority for their protection and well-being.

POPE from its inception has adopted a rights-based approach in addressing vulnerability, exploitation and abuse of children. The child protection policy of POPE has not only a resonance to its vision and mission but also an evolution in response to the changing socio-economic and legal climate. POPE has adopted this Child Protection Policy (CPP) to make itself thoroughly accountable as an organization working with children. It obliges its members and representatives to commit to a highly responsible conduct towards children they work with, and ensure their freedom, rights, safety and dignity. It defines the conduct and actions that constitute child abuse, the complaint mechanism and redressal.

This Child Protection Policy (CPP) draws upon the rights and safeguards provided under the Constitution of India, various other child-centric legislations, international treaties and conventions. This includes United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) 1989, The Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act 2015, The Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Amendment Act 2012, Pre-Conception and Pre-Natal Diagnostic Techniques (PCPNDT) Act 1994, The Commission for Protection of Child Rights Act 2005, The Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act 2009, Prohibition of Child Marriage Act 2006, Child Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Amendment Act 2016, The prohibition of Employment as Manual Scavengers and their Rehabilitation Act, 2013 and The Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Act 2015. This policy outlines organizational mandate in terms of code of conduct for every person within the organization, volunteers, visitors and donors. It also outlines the scope and coverage and provides guidelines for implementation, reporting of violations and redressal.

Vision:

To create safe and secured milieu for children in all activities relating to POPE

Child Maltreatment:

Child Maltreatment is the abuse and neglect that occurs to children under 18 years of age. It includes all types of physical and or emotional ill-treatment, sexual abuse, neglect, negligence and commercial or other exploitation which results in actual or potential harm to the child's health, survival, development or dignity in the context of a relationship of responsibility, trust or power.

1. What Constitutes Child Abuse?

Child Abuse refers to any act of omission or neglect or treatment that may be injurious to the mental and physical wellbeing of a child. Manifestations include child dumping, child neglect, child labour, incest and rape, ritual murder of children, indecent assault, sexual exploitation, child street vending, excessive corporal punishment and ill treatment.

1.1. Physical abuse:

Physical abuse of a child is defined as the intentional use of physical force against a child that results in or has a high likelihood of resulting in harm for the child's health, survival, development or dignity. This includes hitting, beating, kicking, shaking, biting, strangling, scalding, burning, poisoning and suffocating. Much physical violence against children in the home is inflicted with the object of punishing the child.

1.2. Emotional and psychological abuse:

Emotional and psychological abuse involves both isolated incidents as well as a pattern of failure over time on the part of a parent or caregiver to provide a developmentally appropriate and supportive environment. The acts in this category may have a high probability of damaging the child's physical or mental health, or its physical, mental, spiritual, moral or social development. Abuse of this type includes the restriction of movement, patterns of belittling, blaming, threatening, frightening, discriminating against or ridiculing and other non-physical forms of rejection or hostile treatment.

1.3. Neglect:

Neglect includes both isolated incidents as well as a pattern of failure over time on the part of a parent or other family members, guardian, teacher and institutions meant to provide for the protection, development and well-being of the child. It is an abuse through omission by not providing the necessary environment and resources for the child to reach her/his full potential and it is an act of not recognizing actual or potential physical or emotional abuse.

1.4. Exploitation:

Children are considered to be exploited when an act leads to someone else's advantage, profit or gratification. Exploitation often results in abuse, cruel, unjust or harmful treatment of the child. These maltreatments are detrimental to the child's physical and mental health, education, well-being, and development. It encompasses all situations of misuse, exploitation, abuse, victimization, slur, manipulation, discrimination, ill-treatment and oppression.

1.5. Sexual abuse:

Sexual abuse is the act of involvement of a child in sexual activity that she or he does not fully comprehend, for which the child is unable to give informed consent to or for which the child is not developmentally prepared or else that violates the laws or social taboos of society. Children can be sexually abused by both adults and other children who are – by virtue of their age or stage of development – in a position of responsibility, trust or power over the victim.

1.5.1. Sexual abuse means any kind of act, behavior that institutes a sexual offense described under The Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Amendment Act 2012 that includes Penetrative Sexual Assault (Includes Rape, Manipulation of any part of the body of the child, Non - Penetrative Sexual Assault (anyone touching private parts of the child without penetration is said to have committed sexual assault). Sexual Harassment means uttering of any word or making any sound or making any gesture or exhibiting any object or part of body with the intention that such word or sound shall be heard, or such gesture or object or part of body shall be seen by the child.

1.5.2. Child pornography and Abetment of sexual offence: Child pornography means any visual depiction of sexually explicit conduct involving a child which includes photograph, video, digital or computer generated image indistinguishable from an actual child, and image created, adapted, or modified, but appear to depict a child; Abetment of sexual offense is an act of instigation, or in pursuance of the conspiracy or with the aid, which constitutes the abetment under The Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (Amendment) Act 2012.

2. Objectives of the Policy:

- 2.1. To create safe and secured environment for Children and protect Children from all forms of abuses and violations.
- 2.2. To Protect Children from all forms of discrimination based on Caste, Gender, Creed and Class.
